About selected catering

Germany, India, Portugal, Arabia, Italy, New York, Barbados... Elmar collects culinary inspiration from all over the world. He offers his customers only the best ingredients and flavors - for all the senses.

He has been a caterer in the high society location of Grünwald since 1982, for over 40 years. Selected catering stands for a highly reliable level of quality with a demanding customer base.

About selected crew catering

Numerous helping hands are needed to set up and dismantle large events, the days are long and the work is hard. What could be more important than taking care of the crew's physical well-being?

We think this topic is too often neglected!

That's why we want our selected crew catering to help you cater for your team during the pre- and post-event periods. With a happy crew, the hard work will be a lot easier, we promise.

Sustainability

Our impact on the environment is very important to us. We reduce our carbon footprint by paying attention to the following points:

- Quality of our products
- Seasonality and regionality of food
- Avoiding plastic
- Precise consumption planning
- Energy-efficient appliances
- Waste management

Logically - not only ecologically!

In addition to the ecological perspective, we also focus on social and economic sustainability:

We offer our employees flexible working hours with fair pay. In every situation, we work with our employees to find the best solution. This is how we retain our team and strengthen their spirit. A win-win situation!

We do not take part in any threatening price wars and always formulate our offers transparently. Quality can demand its price!

Reviews

Our customers' opinions are important to us. Here are two examples that describe our services:

SW//M | Stadtwerke München

„We have already used selected events several times as an event agency and caterer and the feedback is always fantastic!“

 UBS | Union Bank of Switzerland

„Planning our event with selected events was very straightforward. Thanks to the full-service offer, we always felt that we were in good hands. Any time again!“
